

UPON ARRIVAL: PLEASE STOP AT THE VISITORS CENTER DURING NORMAL BUSINESS HOURS, OR CALL 928.777.3333 AFTER HOURS.

VISITOR INFORMATION

As the world's premier aviation and aerospace institution and a leader in research-based solutions for industry, Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University welcomes visitors to its residential campuses.

In an effort to keep our guests as well as students, faculty and staff as safe as possible, all visitors must strictly adhere to our health precautions, as follows:

	Do not come onto our campuses if you are sick.
	Before exiting your car, put on a face covering. You will need to wear your face covering at all times, both indoors and outdoors, whenever you are on our campuses.
	Before entering any facilities, complete your wellness check at the Visitors Center. Enter campus on Dan Carrell Drive and follow the signs. After hours, call 928.777.3333.
	The wellness check will include a brief questionnaire and no-contact temperature check. You will be given a color-coded wrist band and a visitor's badge.
	Wear your color-coded wristband and visitor's badge at all times.
	If your visit spans several days, please note that you must have a wellness check every 24 hours.
	Maintain physical distancing — stay six feet away from other people at all times.
	Follow directional signs and floor markers.
	Wash your hands regularly.
	Make liberal use of hand sanitizer, which is readily available everywhere.

NOTE: The Flight Training Center (FTC), located at 6645 Corradi Way, is approximately 10 minutes from the main campus. There is a wellness check station for visitors located in Building F3 (look for the sign that says "Operations"). Completion of wellness checks on the main campus or at the FTC are accepted for both locations on the same day (whichever you visit first).

Visitors who refuse to adhere to Embry-Riddle's safety guidelines will be escorted off-campus. We appreciate your visit to Embry-Riddle, and your support for our efforts to prevent the spread of Covid-19.
